

Racing ahead with Hunter McElrea

Eximm has sponsored Hunter McElrea through his Junior career in carts and are now the major sponsor for his progression to the National Formula Ford Car Competition.

Eximm's Community Vision

Eximm CEO Garry Goodman has had some incredible people to guide and mentor him, growing Eximm into what it is today. Eximm is always happy to give back.

Giving back through kids in sport

Garry sees it only fitting that Eximm gives back to the community by helping kids in sport.

"Statistics show the spiral effect on kids lives when they drop out of sport. Likewise, kids who have been on the wrong path in life can become involved in sport and completely change for the better," Garry says.

His passion lies in grassroots sport and supporting kids -- not necessarily to become great sports people, but to have a sense of mateship and worth in a team environment.
